THE MURDER IN WASHINGTON. - We pub lished an account in Saturday's Gazette of the man in his business as a cattle drover. He is known to have had a considerable amount of money with him, the proceeds of a lot of sheep he had sold in Baltimore. The last seen of him was about 10 o'clock, on Friday night, talking to two colored men. He was at this time evidently in liquor, and was probably speaking to sart, we will have to go down this way and cross a lot to get to the depot." After the inquest to-day the remains will be sent to the residence of Mr. Henry Hahn fact. residence of Mr. Henry Hahn, father of the d ceased, in Woodstock, Shenandoah county, Va. Mr. Hahn is well-known along the lines from the Southwest. The police have arrested three colore I men upon suspicion of being connected with the murder. One of the men was a driver for Hahn, and was to-day recognized by Mr. Catts and others. Last night Detec-Washington force came here in a hack, and Sampson of the Aiexandria police, went to a the foot of King street, to which point the hase in Buzzard's Roost, at the north end of trains will run. Meals will be furnished on the Roal street, where a woman resides who is upon intimate terms with a colored man named Henry Young. Young has been hanging about here for the last six months, and he has worn agreeable. Close connections are assured. thek clothing for some time, but on Saturday morning he appeared in a worn light colored suit. Young, upon whom suspicion had been fixed by the fact that he had shown a check to a man at the Long Bridge, on Saturday morning, was identified this morning. Blood was found on his clothing, and a place where a piece has been cut from his boot was found, which, it is said, corresponded with the sheepskin, out of which the covering for the slung shot, found on the ground at the place of murder, was made, and which was identified. He was taken to Washington. At a later hour the police arrested a colored man named David Han y who had on Young's hat, which had been exchanged on Saturday, and two other colored men, one of whom was a driver for Mr. Hohn. These, with Lucy Williams, and Abe Brown, have been taken to Washington to testify in an examination to be held there to-day. On Saturday morning last a colored man clean'y dressed, (but no suspleion being excited, nothing more was notie de) handed to Mr. G. W. D. Ramsay, the teller of the First National Bank, a check for three hundred dottars, on a Baltimore bank. Mr. R. told him he must be identified before the check could be cashed. He then handed Mr. R. a worm pass on the O., A & M. R. R., signed John S. Barbour, President, Mr. R said 'you had better get Mr. Burbour to identify you." "I don't know Mr. Barbour" said the man, taking the check, an i leaving the bank. This occurred before the details of the murder of Mr. Hahn were made known, and hence excited no suspicion. It is said that the circumstantial evidence that designates Young as the murderer, is convincing. RELIGIOUS SERVICES YESTERDAY.-The weather, notwithstanding the prevalence of a strong northwest wind, in the morning, was very pleasant, and the attendance upon the various places of religious worship was good. Rev. At night a lady was baptized in the pool. At the Catholic Church in the morning Rev. Father Strong, of Georgetown, preached on the Annunciation. There was no preaching in the M. P. Church at night. The resident clergy occupied the pulpits of their respective churches with the excoptions noted above. The following is the report of the work of the Young Men's Christian

Tha Mission Sabbath School on St. Asaph st , opposite the Jail, opened for the first time yes terday afternoon with twenty-five scholars and a full corps of teachers; this new activity promises well. The Mission Sabbath School at the corner of King and West streets was also first opened in the afternoon and organized, with thirty scholars and four teachers. The Alms House meeting was again largely attended, with a full committee at work; the exercises were of the greatest interest, and resulted in the conversion of one of the parties present, giving thereby the fullest encouragement for the members to prosecute the work with unabated zeal. At the Jail the usual interesting and encouraging exercises were held; a tull band of workers were present at that point. The Prayer Meeting at the corner of King and West streets met with its usual success, in point of interest and in number attending: a full corps of workers were on hand, and their hearts encouraged in their ministry. The Sunday Prayer Meeting in the Second Presbyterian Church had its usual full attendance and interesting exercises; the services partook of the solemn character of those of the Supday previous, and the hearts of the members of the Association were again gladdened in seeing so many of the youth of both sexes so deeply interested in the proceedings. This me ting will be held next Sunday in the First Presbyterian

DAIRYING IN VIRGINIA. - Under this heading we find in the report of the Agricultural Department, Washington, a statement of the operation of the dairies in Loudoun county. Mr. Taylor reports the net proceeds of 8 cows, over current expenses, at $387.10; average of $48.40 per cow. He manufactured 36,625 pounds of cheese. Mr. T. R. Smith's dairy of ten cows, netted $273 81 from cheese; amount of butter made 970 pounds, bringing 30 cents per pound, $282, value of 10 calves $61.45. Average net return per cow, $62.62. There is no estimate made for the milk that went to the logs. Mr. E J. Smith's dairy of ten cows reports an average per cow of $40.03 for the sea-ou. Mr. B. W. Welch's dairy reports an average per cow of $43. These gentlemen are all experimentalists. When they become more familiar with their business, the profits per cow will doubtless be increased.

NOT A MURDERER. - Since the late murder in Washington everybody has been on the look-out for the murderer. So yesterday, when a colored boy, whom Mr. Mount had hired to ride a horse to the residence of Mr. Philips, in Loudoun county, with the promise of a bonus should be seil the animal on the way, rode up the street and out the turnpike, asking every human being he met if they didn't want to buy a horse, the suspicion of his guilt amounted to almost certainty, and a short time after he had passed Catt's, Messrs. Catts and Addison mounted their horses and giving pursuit soon caught up with him; but so far from his possessing the courage of a murderer he was scared to that degree when they presented pistois at him, that he fell off the horse beseeching them not to shoot.

IMPORTATION OF SALT. - The Norway barque lhana arrived up yesterday from Liverpool with salt for Hooe & Johnston. The barque Astrea, from Liverpool, with salt to W. A. Smoot, is reported off Nanjamoy Creek, and the barque Chapman, Liverpool, with salt to Hooe & Johnston, is in Hampton Roads. The import trade in salt is freshened by the needs of the fish packers for the coming season. The Ihana yet remains in the stream, and will probably not begin to discharge her cargo until to-morrow morning.

> called upon William Jack-on, the condemned man, within the last few days. He is said to be in a more troubled state of mind since the execution of Manley-with whom he had been incarcerated for some time. Manley was executed in the jail yard near the window from which the gallows could be seen, but Jackson refused to see him hung. Although repentent and fully appreciating his situation, he still persistently denies that he killed his wife, of which crime he was convicted. At his special request his counsel, among others, visited him resterday. An effort will be made to have his sentence commuted, upon the ground that there are some extenuating circumstances.

The Murderer of Hahu.

Washington, March 31.-At the inquest held to-day upon the body of Mr. Frank Hahu. murdered in Armory square, in this city on Friday night, Young the negro man arrested in Alexandria yesterday, stated that he spent Friday night at home in Alexandria with his woman. # A Card.

Having been urged by friends to become a candidate for the next Mayoralty, I take this method of publicly making a declaration of my position with reference to that office. Appreciating very highly the courtesy and kindness of those among whom I have lived for the past eignteen years, with but a short interval, I could not refuse to serve them in a polition so honorable; but realizing the fact that I have no claims above others, I shall not attempt to force myself into public notoriety, and will do nothing to distract or mar the harmony of the party. It is perfectly apparent to all that the Conservative party will need every Conservative vote at the next election, not only to save the head of the ticket, but to secure a fair working majority in the two boards of the City Council, thereby maintaining the control of our city affairs. In view of these facts, all personal considerations should be sub-edinated to public good, and no man is staunch in Conservative principles who would attempt to gratify personal ambition at the expense of great public interests. To be the candidate of the Conservative party would be a high compliment if tendered voluntarily by my fellow-chizens, but if it has to be secured by intrigue, by traducing those who may be my op-ponents, and by dishonorable electioneering tricks, so often resorted to in these degenerate days. I must be excused from participating in such political jugglery.
